But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. - Galatians 5:22-23

Grace Fellowship Presents

Gentleness is an active trait, describing the manner in which we should treat others. Meekness is a passive trait, describing the proper Christian response when others mistreat us. -Jerry Bridges

Gentleness makes room to care for others.

But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother taking care of her own children. - 1 Thessalonians 2:7

Gentleness prepares the way to restoration.

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. - Colossians 4:5-6

Moments of humility remind us to be gentle.

Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all! - Romans 12:16

Gentleness is the active trait that shows how we should treat others.

Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. - Philippians 4:5

Gentleness speaks louder than words.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. - Matthew 11:29-30

Gentleness is a choice that helps people experience grace.

A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. - Proverbs 15:1

Gentleness leads to greatness.

You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your right hand supported me, and your gentleness made me great. - Psalm 18:25
